There should be a meeting of the business men of this town to urge the reduction of fire insurance rates. Since Manning has good fire protection facilities.

The tobacco warehouses are preparing to do business. The yield this season is said to be very fine, which means that there will be an early money crop.

Mr. Pressley Barron, who has been living in Greenville in Manning for a few days, and left last night for Columbia, where he has accepted a position with "Lever, the shoe man."

The Masonic fraternity of Clarendon county was well represented at the laying of the corner stone to the new court house in Sumter last Thursday. Sumter did herself proud in arranging and managing this great ceremony.

Two automobiles have been added to the town, and so far as the town's ordinances are concerned they are as silent as a tomb so far as speed limit is concerned. After some serious accident there will be an ordinance against fast motoring through the town.

There will be a meeting tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock to consider the cotton warehouse project. President Hodges has a good many shares subscribed, and the matter is in good shape to become a success. Let everybody attend the meeting tomorrow.

Mr. F. O. Richardson is attending the Bankers Convention at the Isle of Palms this week. If Phil Gadsden gets hold of him, his board of deacons will be investigating his conduct. That is fast company Frank is traveling in this week, we know, because we have just gotten away from it.

You can't keep a working man down. The street sprinkler was bought by contributions from merchants, and those who contributed towards its purchase are getting the benefit from the dust-laying spray. Hirschmann, being a non-believer in sprinkling, declined to contribute and the machine scornfully passes him by, but he has the laugh on the others, they had to pay for the water before they could see he can stand in his door and see the water-wagon go by without costing him a cent.

Died last Thursday near Paxville after a short illness, Dr. W. H. Reynolds, aged about 53 years. The burial took place in the family burying ground at Reynolds Mill. The deceased was a native of Cuba during the Spanish-American war. He was a good physician and one of the best read men in the county.

What came near being a disastrous fire Thursday afternoon was prevented by the timely work of those present at McDonald's clothes pressing establishment. The cause of the fire was the explosion of some gasoline which spread but was extinguished before the fire engine got to the scene.

Beginning July 1st, the government requires postmasters to weigh the different classes of mail before sending it off, and this will take up some time, and in order that the postmaster will not be rushed at the last moment, the patrons of the office are requested to have their mail matter in as early as possible.

The Atlantic Coast Line offers round trip tickets from Manning to Norfolk and return for $7.40. The tickets are on sale tomorrow and are good for ten days. Here is an opportunity to go to the Jamestown exposition to be there on Sunday. The tickets are on sale at the crowds of South Carolinians at Jamestown on the 28th.

Remember that box rents at the postoffice are due, and must be paid by the 1st of July. The government does not allow the postmasters to put mail in boxes that have not been paid for in advance. We are not required to give this notice, but do so as a matter of accommodation to parties interested.

The person who treats with contempt the appeals made to them to pay what they are honestly due, is no better than a thief who robs a house. The one who refuses to pay an honest debt, has secured the goods of another dishonestly, and the thief who robs a house has done the same thing. The difference is, however, the thief is put on the chain and the other is not, but should be.

The bad road over Brewington's causeway interferes with having a rural mail route established in that section, yet those most interested will content themselves in waiting for the chain-gang to get out of Salem to fix it. The mail route is too important to wait on anything, the gang can get the road fixed in a few days.

Manning has now two good fire engines, with a supply of fire wells to protect the property from fire. It is now up to our business men, and town authorities to take this matter up with the insurance companies, with a view to a reduction of rates. We believe if the matter is properly presented to the tariff association the rate will be a reduction of fire rates at once.

On Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock on the 12th, at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Sally Margaret Edmonds and Mr. William Edward Edmonds were united in marriage by their pastor Rev. Geo. E. Spruill.

The bride was dressed in silk, trimmed with lace. It was a beautiful and quiet home wedding.

The bride and groom went to their home in the suburbs of Paxville.

Dry wells permitted to be dug within few feet of the nearest neighbor should not be permitted. These wells do not tend towards improving the health of a community, and they are very obnoxious very frequently to passers by, and exceedingly distasteful to those living near them. The town authorities ought to do something to wards stopping the nuisance. A nuisance not half so obnoxious or dangerous, created by poor people would be stopped instantly.

Harry Warr, son of former section-master W. A. Warr, of this town, fell from a trestle of the C. N. and L. railroad in Columbia last Wednesday, and died from the injuries last Monday at his father's home.

Other boys started to bathe, and while lowering themselves from the trestle to the river bank, Harry's foot slipped and he fell a distance of 30 feet, striking on his head. He died from concussion of the brain.

The medicine that sets the whole world thinking. The remedy on which all doctors agree.

The home of Mrs. W. F. Kennedy in Kingstree, was entered yesterday morning about 4 o'clock by a negro man, evidently to steal. He entered Mrs. Kennedy's room where she was sleeping with two daughters, took hold of the foot of one of the young ladies, who make an outcry, and the man fled. The man was belonging to one of the Black river bridge gang was searched, and several articles from the Kennedy home were found in it. The owner of the valise escaped into the swamp, and a searching party was organized to hunt him.

A man who is in perfect health, so he can do an honest day's work when necessary, has much for which he should be thankful. Mr. C. R. Rogers, of Branchton, writes that he was not only unable to work, but he couldn't stoop over to tie his own shoes. Six bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made a new man of him. He says, "Success to Foley's Kidney Cure." The Arant Co. Drug Store.

South Carolina Georgia Convention. C. M. A. will meet in Charleston July 4-5. Great interest is being shown all over South Carolina and Georgia in the convention of the Coming Men of America which will be held at Charleston July 4-5. A very interesting program has been arranged. Cherokee Lodge No. 4591 of that city assisted by Seashore Lodge No. 5104 of Mount Pleasant will act as hosts. Fourth of July, which has been the second through the eighth will be in effect. The C. M. A. official parade badge will be worn.

Free Samples of "Prevent-ous" and a booklet on Colds will be gladly mailed on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., simply to prove merit. Preventives are little Candy Cold Cure tablets. For a seated cold or LaGrippe, break it up safely and quickly with Preventives. Sold by W. E. Brown & Co.

To celebrate the opening of the new road between Manning and Sardinia, which brings to the court house, by several miles nearer, the entire Salem section, there will be a basket picnic on Friday, 12th day of July, on the hill at the summit, near Sardinia. Superintendent McFadden promises to make the occasion a pleasant one. He will invite several speakers and he expects a large number of people in attendance. The people of Sardinia are very proud of this new road; they worked hard to get it, and now it is completed they want everybody to meet with them and spend a day in rejoicing.

The press dispatches of Sunday bring the news that Rev. C. M. Billings, a former pastor of Paxville and other Baptist churches in this county, has been excommunicated from the Baptist church at Blackville, on account of an awful scandal, in which a pretty domestic was involved. It is said that when Billings heard that his church had positive proof against him, he took the first train and left for parts unknown, and deserted his invalid wife and child. Later comes the news from Augusta, Ga., that Mr. Billings is in that city and claims that he had never thought of deserting his family. He declined to make a statement with regard to the charge against him, but on such acquaintances to withhold judgment until he has had time to advise with them.

Panola and Manning baseball teams played a very interesting game of ball here last Friday. It was a splendid game. Both sides worked hard, and were in the game from the jump; for several innings not a score was made by either team, and the game closed in a high inning with a score of 2 to 2. Darkness prevented the tie being broken. Unfortunately a misunderstanding arose in the latter part of the ninth inning. Panola was at the bat, two men out and two strikes against the batter. Bunyan Harvin, in making the second base out, and asked for a runner to take his place. Pano put up Belser, which was objected to by Manning, and this brought on a dispute that resulted in several of the excited young men getting mixed up with the game. After the game, satisfactory explanations were made and everything was amicably adjusted. We hope Panola and Manning will cross bats again soon. We would rather see their exhibition of base ball than that of professionals.

No greater mistake can be made than to consider lightly the evidence of disease in your system. Don't take desperate chances on ordinary medicines. Use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, 35 cents, Tea or Tablets, Dr. W. E. Brown & Co.

Two Hearts That Beat as One.

The Presbyterian church of this town presented a beautiful picture last Wednesday evening. The occasion was the marriage of Dr. J. A. Cole and Miss Katharine E. Plowden. The auditorium and gallery was crowded with admiring friends. The decorations were very tasteful and arranged. The scheme was white and green. The isles were covered with white cloth, and the rostrum was covered with the same, and upon the rostrum was a pyramid of lovely ferns. The electric lights shone with an unusual brilliancy. The music for the occasion was delightfully rendered by Mrs. G. H. Huggins.

The ushers, Messrs. W. M. O'Bryan, Joe J. Plowden, T. C. Howie, and A. J. Rigby, very gracefully performed their duties, and without confusion seated the immense audience.

The wedding party assembled in the Sunday school room, and as Mrs. Huggins played Lohengrin's wedding march the procession started in the following order: Ushers followed by Mr. H. D. Plowden, father of the bride, with Mrs. C. W. O'Connell, the bride's aunt. Immediately they seated themselves. Then came the attendants in opposite aisles, Miss Nannie Hodges, Mr. S. Oliver O'Bryan; Miss Nina Riser, Mr. T. M. Wells; Miss Frances Davis, Mr. W. E. R. Plowden, Jr.; Miss Cornelia Plowden, Mr. W. N. O'Bryan; Miss Margie Appelt, Mr. J. McSwain Woods; Miss Cynthia Neal, of Atlanta, Mr. Lucius H. Harvin; followed by Browne Bayne, cushion bearers. As the couples met in the chancel they took their positions beside each other on the rostrum facing the audience. Then came up the left aisle the bride on the arm of the maid of honor, Miss Suddie Davis, and from the right, front door opposite came the groom on the arm of Mr. W. J. Muldrow, of Anderson, best man. When the bride and groom met in front of the altar they joined hands and Rev. A. R. Woodson, in a most impressive manner, tied the nuptial knot. During the ceremony the organ in low, sweet melody pealed forth "Hearts and Flowers." In response to the question, "what token?" the best man presented a ring, and the maid of honor prepared the bride's coronet and the groom placed in the bride's crown. The ceremony was beautifully impressive. The bride was attired in white silk, en traine, with a full veil, length of dress, and carried in her hand a bouquet of bridal roses. The maid of honor was attired in white, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaids were dressed in white trimmed with lace, green girdles, and each carried a bouquet of white carnations tied with green ribbons. Browne Bayne, the cushion bearer, was also dressed in white. The ushers and groomsmen wore the regulation evening dress suits.

When the ceremony was concluded the organ struck up Mendelssohn's march, the bride and groom leading, followed by their attendants marched merrily down the right aisle, out of the church.

At the home of the bride's father there was a reception. The guests were received by Mrs. C. W. O'Connell, Mr. A. J. Rigby, and Mr. W. E. R. Plowden, Jr. The house was decorated in the same color scheme, green and white. Refreshments were served in the dining room by Misses Martha Davis, Julia Continio, and Rita Huggins. Mesdames C. H. Huggins and Hiram Huggins assisted in the entertainment of guests. The display of presents took place in the left parlor, and they were many, beautiful and useful. The popularity of the couple was manifested by the number of costly and handsome presents from friends at home as well as abroad.

Misses Willie Spencer and Susie Harvin, during the evening served punch. Miss Cynthia Neal, a school mate of the bride, was the lucky one to catch the bride's bouquet.

Thursday morning, amid showers of rice and the sincere congratulations of a host of friends, the happy couple took the train for Asheville, where they will spend about two weeks and then return to their home in Manning.

Is Beauty Only Skin Deep?

Beauty is only skin deep, but the forces that create beauty as deep as the fountain from which they flow, when the blood is charged with impurities beauty disappears, when the blood is pure beauty blossoms in the face and form. Rydell's Liver Tablets keep the liver healthy and the bowels regular, prevents the blood becoming laden with bile and waste matter, makes the skin clear, eyes bright and healthy more than skin deep.
